Van de boeken van Nicholas Sparks zijn wereldwijd 100 miljoen exemplaren verkocht. Als Trevor Benson in Afghanistan zwaargewond raakt bij een grote explosie buiten het ziekenhuis waar hij werkt als orthopedisch chirurg, wordt hij teruggestuurd naar de VS. Het vervallen huis in New Bern dat hij van zijn grootvader heeft geërfd, lijkt hem een goede plek om te herstellen. Terwijl hij de bijenkorven van zijn grootvader verzorgt en zich klaarmaakt voor een medische bijscholing, ontmoet hij de mysterieuze Natalie Masterson. Hoewel er vanaf de eerste ontmoeting een onmiskenbare connectie is, blijft zij frustrerend afstandelijk, waardoor Trevor twijfelt of ze misschien iets te verbergen heeft. Een andere factor die zijn verblijf compliceert, is de aanwezigheid van Callie, een norse tiener die in een woonwagenkamp woont. Trevor komt erachter dat het meisje ooit bevriend was met zijn grootvader en hij hoopt dat ze wat licht kan laten schijnen op de nooit opgehelderde omstandigheden rond diens dood, maar ze lijkt weinig te weten. Totdat een crisis ervoor zorgt dat de ware aard van Callies verleden boven tafel komt. Bij zijn pogingen de geheimen van Natalie en Callie te ontrafelen, zal Trevor de ware betekenis van liefde en vergeving leren kennen.

"When a mysterious young woman named Katie appears in the small North Carolina town of Southport, her sudden arrival raises questions about her past. Beautiful yet self-effacing, Katie seems determined to avoid forming personal ties until a series of events draws her into two reluctant relationships: one with Alex, a widowed store owner with a kind heart and two young children; and another with her plainspoken single neighbour, Jo. Despite her reservations, Katie slowly begins to let down her guard, putting down roots in the close-knit community and becoming increasingly attached to Alex and his family. But even as Katie begins to fall in love, she struggles with the dark secret that still haunts and terrifies her-- a past that set her on a fearful, shattering journey across the country, to the sheltered oasis of Southport. With Jo's empathic and stubborn support, Katie eventually realises that she must choose between a life of transient safety and one of riskier rewards - and that in the darkest hour, love is the only true safe haven."--Publisher description.

From the author of The Notebook, this is the story of two brothers deeply bound by love and tragedy and an extraordinary chronicle of a life-affirming trip In January 2003 Nicholas Sparks and his brother Micah set off on a three-week trip around the world. An adventure by any measure, this trip was especially meaningful as it marked another milestone in the life journey of two brothers who, by their early thirties, were the only surviving members of their family. As Nicholas and Micah travel the globe, from the Taj Mahal to Machu Picchu, the story of their family slowly unfolds. Just before Nicholas' marriage he and Micah lost their mother in a horseriding accident; a week short of Nicholas' triumphant debut as a novelist with THE NOTEBOOK, the brothers lost their father to a car crash, and just a few short years later they were forced to say goodbye to their sister who died of brain cancer at the young age of 36. Against the backdrop of the main wonders of the world the brothers come together to heal the wounds of this tragic legacy and maintain their determination to live life to its fullest. How far can you run from your past? Jeremy Marsh once vowed he would never do three things: leave New York City, give his heart away again after barely surviving one failed marriage, and, most of all, become a parent. Now Jeremy is living in the small town of Boone Creek, North Carolina, married to Lexie, the woman he loves, and anticipating the birth of their daughter. Life seems to be settling down - until a disturbing and mysterious message appears from the past. Wounds he thought had healed are re-opened, and Jeremy realises his old life is closer to him than he thinks.
