Poor Starla

Le moins que l'on puisse dire, c'est que la communication n'est pas le fort de Mayo ! Cette lycéenne renfermée sur elle-même débute pourtant un petit boulot ouvert sur les autres au sein d'une "maison des confessions". Son rôle : prêter une oreille attentive à des clients venus dire ce qu'ils ont sur le coeur. Mais pour son baptême du feu, elle doit s'occuper de Aoba, LA star de l'équipe masculine de basket-ball du lycée ! Une relation entre deux adolescents aux antipodes débute !

1870, États-Unis. Depuis la signature du traité de Laramie, aucun homme blanc ne doit fouler le territoire sacré des Black Hills. Pourtant une horde de tueurs viole la frontière interdite. Ils remontent la piste d'un secret capable de détruire les dernières nations indiennes libres. Mais le plus grand des chefs sioux est sur leurs traces. Sitting Bull et ses braves se mettent en chasse.

Brenda Laurel is best known for her work with Purple Moon, the pioneering game company she cofounded in the 1990s. Purple Moon's games were based on years of research Laurel completed in an effort to understand why computer games seemed to be of so little interest to girls. Using diverse archival sources such as trade journals, newspapers, and recorded interviews, alongside Laurel's completed games and own writings and an original interview with Laurel herself, this volume offers insight into both the early development of the games for girls movement of the 1990s and the lasting impact of Laurel's game design breakthroughs. In her work with Purple Moon, Laurel drew on her background in theatre as well as her expertise in human computer interaction and qualitative research. By relying on this interdisciplinary background, Laurel made significant contributions to our understanding of the design and development of games as a medium for emotional rehearsal and storytelling. Additionally, her dedication to research-informed design has had a longstanding impact as companies and designers increasingly rely on audience research and metrics to shape their practices. The newest in Bloomsbury's Influential Video Game Designers series, Carly Kocurek highlights the contributions of a designer whose work has had a profound impact on the development of both games for girls and empathy games.

English edition: ISBN 9789048526000 In 2007 schreef Willem Middelkoop in Als de dollar valt dat het niet de vraag was of ons financiële systeem zou instorten, maar wanneer. Het bleken profetische woorden. Eind 2008 waren we slechts een paar uur verwijderd van de complete ineenstorting van ons wereldwijde kredietkaartenhuis. In zijn nieuwste boek, De Big Reset: Gold Wars en het financiële eindspel, beschrijft Middelkoop de historie en problemen van ons huidige financiële systeem en onthult hoe we voor 2020 zullen overgaan naar een nieuw systeem. Goud heeft als enige valuta de afgelopen eeuwen haar koopkracht behouden. Bankiers proberen de vlucht naar goud al tientallen jaren af te remmen maar lijken deze War on Gold nu te verliezen. - Willem Middelkoop is oprichter van het Commodity Discovery Fund en publicist. Daarnaast is hij een veelgevraagd spreker en columnist. Hij vervierf landelijke bekendheid als marktcommentator bij RTLZ en als regelmatig gast van "De Wereld Draait Door" en "Pauw & Witteman". Middelkoop waarschuwde in zijn eerste boek "Als de dollar valt" (2007) voor een naderende kredietcrisis. In de jaren er na verschenen "De permanente oliecrisis" (2008) en "Overleef de kredietcrisis" (2009) en "Goud en het geheim van geld" (2012).
