

Sherman Oak And The Magic Potato

Six-years-war has ended, by the strength of only one man.
Everyone calls him "Swordmaster".
Unfortunately, this is not the story of such time of glory, bloodshed and....
Ruby: Sola, why don't you just tell them that this is the story of a man in a harem full of beautiful flower girls.
Almond: Could you not disturb her? This is the most important part of our story, and it could decide the future of us all.
Ruby: That's really expensive, huh.
Sola: Could you girls stop talking? So, I can continue with the synopsis....
Pen tool
Ruby: And I want to ask you why the novel cover doesn't have me on it? Since I'm the main heroine and all.
Sola: Ruby, listen. If we don't have a good synopsis, people will not buy our book, and then.....
Almond: Well, too late now. You talked too much. We have run out of writing space...
Iris: Then what? I want to know it too.
Sola: Then there will be no book 2.
Iris: No book 2, so what? Why should I care?
Sola: Our universe will collapse, and we will disappear forever..
Iris: What did you say?
Almond: Well, too late now. You talked too much. We have run out of writing space...
Ruby: What!!!!NO!!! I don't want to DIE!!!!You do something sis!!! I should have done that human thing with our lord when I still had a chance. Nooooooooo.....
Iris: Buy it now. People!! Yes, I mean, you!! YES! YOU!!! BUUUUUUUUUYYYYYYYYYY....

TORN BETWEEN TWO WORLDS Having won her at great peril, young Aidan, a powerful but not very ambitious magician, would be content to enjoy the fruits of peace with Ailanna, his Faerie love. But Aidan's dying mother has revealed to him that he is half brother to the King--and requires of him that he provide magical aid to his embattled royal brother. Aidan performe must yield to this dying maternal wish. Alas, to win Ailanna in the first place, Aidan has also sworn a mighty oath to the Lord of Faerie. Caught between these conflicting vows, torn between the mortal world and the lands of Faerie, Aidan is about to learn the perils, even for a magician, of serving two masters.... Sherman Oak and the Magic Potato

Twenty Tales of Crime and the Supernatural

Author of The Girl With All the Gifts Mike Carey presents the fourth book in his hip supernatural thriller series featuring freelance exorcist Felix Castor. Old ghosts are coming back to haunt Felix. Names and faces he thought he'd left behind in Liverpool resurface in London, bringing Felix far more trouble than he'd anticipated. Childhood memories, family traumas, sins old and new, and a council estate that was meant to be a modern utopia until it turned into something like hell. . . .These are just some of the sticks life uses to beat Felix Castor with, as things go from bad to worse for London's favorite freelance exorcist. See, Castor's stepped over the line this time, and he knows he'll have to pay. The only question is: how much? Not the best of times, then, for an unwelcome confrontation with his holier-than-thou brother, Matthew. And just when he thinks things can't possibly get any worse, along comes Father Gwilliam and the Anathema. Oh joy. . .

This unique biography details the life of magician Marshall Brodien, most remembered for his long-running career as television's Wizzo the Wizard on WGN-TV's Bozo's Circus and The Bozo Show. Coverage begins in the late 1940s, when Brodien was a young magician in his first job as a Chicago magic shop demonstrator, then recounts Brodien's steady rise to show-business success, including details of his work as a performer at the Magic Lounge in Cicero and, as a nightclub hypnotist in Chicago's posh Cairo Supper Club. The work concludes with an examination of Brodien's current career as one of the most successful marketers of magic sets in the U.S.

Storytelling

Thicker Than Water

On the last day of school, Sherman Oak is given an atomic wedgie in front of hundreds of cheering students. Upon returning home, Sherman wishes for courage. A plain baked potato in an aluminum foil wrapper explodes with green light, and grants Sherman his wish. Sherman Oak is taken away against his will to a strange land. There, he must complete a journey filled with mosquito skeletons, snakes that wind from the sky, a haunted cottage, cactus outlaws, and a one hundred foot pus-oozing behemoth. If Sherman fails, his family and school mates will remain trapped in the land forever.

Storytelling is an ancient practice known in all civilizations throughout history. Characters, tales, techniques, oral traditions, motifs, and tale types transcend individual cultures - elements and names change, but the stories are remarkably similar with each rendition, highlighting the values and concerns of the host culture. Examining the stories and the oral traditions associated with different cultures offers a unique view of practices and traditions."Storytelling: An Encyclopedia of Mythology and Folklore" brings past and present cultures of the world to life through their stories, oral traditions, and performance styles. It combines folklore and mythology, traditional arts, history, literature, and festivals to present an overview of world cultures through their liveliest and most fascinating mode of expression. This appealing resource includes specific storytelling techniques as well as retellings of stories from various cultures and traditions.
